

Daily Children's Programs

Play lays the foundation for academic achievement and lifelong success. Fells Branch Library's high impact literacy and learning environment offers young children hands-on, open-ended play opportunities, programs that foster pre-reading skills, and carefully selected materials, including early literacy kits.

Book Babies

Tuesdays

11:00 - 11:30

Stories, songs, and fingerplays followed by open play for babies ages 0-24 months.

Brain Builders

Tuesdays & Thursdays

3:30 - 4:30

Drop in for guided play designed to help adults interact with their young children in meaningful ways.

Step Up Story Time

Wednesdays

11:00 - 11:30

Enjoy books, songs and rhymes at a storytime that helps build early literacy skills for children ages 2 to 4 years old.

Learn & Play

Fridays

10:30 - 11:15

November 30, 2018

December 14, 2018

January 11 and 25, 2019

February 8, 2019

March 8 and 22, 2019

Circle time with songs, interactive reading and hands-on activities.

“Play is our
brain’s favorite way
of learning”

— Diane Ackerman